

Unusual formations: pregame card for the referee

Fill this in before the pregame meeting and hand it to the referee. One block per unusual formation. Sketch: Mark the ball, the line of scrimmage, the ends and the backs. Circle the eligible receivers.

Team _____ Opponent _____ Date _____ Head coach _____

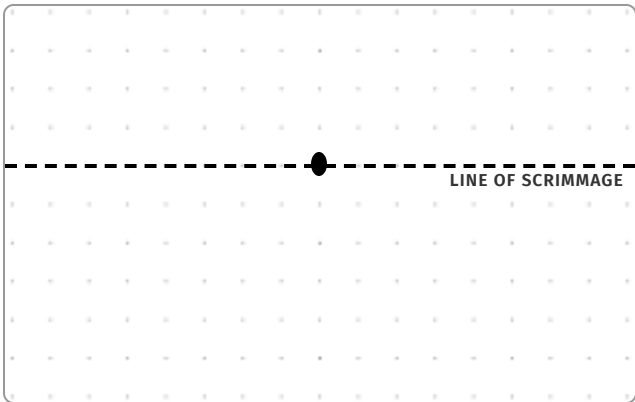

Rule book: ☐ NFHS ☐ NCAA ☐ NCAA + Texas UIL ☐ NFL ☐ League rules

1 Formation name What you call it on the sideline

Why it is legal One line, in your own words

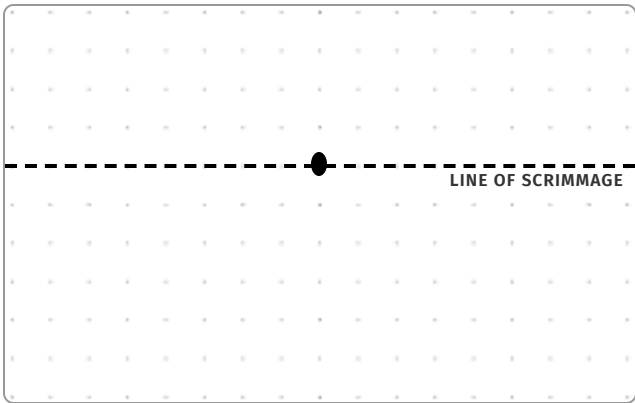

Rule reference For example: NFHS 7-2-5

2 Formation name What you call it on the sideline

Why it is legal One line, in your own words

Rule reference For example: NFHS 7-2-5

3 Formation name What you call it on the sideline

Why it is legal One line, in your own words

Rule reference For example: NFHS 7-2-5

This card tells the officials what to expect. It does not make a formation legal.

The Playbook Caller · by MiaMetrix · theplaybookcaller.com

Coaching aid, not an official ruling: the game officials' ruling governs. The Playbook Caller is not affiliated with or endorsed by the NFL, NCAA, NFHS or UIL, nor by Pop Warner, AYF or USA Football.

Rules checked 2026-09-28 against public sources: miametrix.io/playbook-caller/rules/ · Alignment at the snap only. Motion, shifts, timing and contact are not covered.

Scan: check your own formations